Srinagar, popularly known as "the Kashmir capital of India" is known for its scenic beauty, its cool climate, and its rich culture. Srinagar has a renowned university which, on 18th Jan 2011, was formally named as New Aligarh Muslim University. The New Delhi Correspondent of "The Times of India" recently reported that in the list of best universities of India, Srinagar stands proudly along with Mumbai and Bangalore. Srinagar not being a city but a joint venture between the two constituent parts of India, Jammu and Kashmir, the national flag is flown in the northeastern sector of Srinagar. 1. APJ Abdul Kalam: Biography & Autobiography The Durga Puja, a religious festival of Hinduism has been celebrated in Srinagar since hundreds of years. The word is also used as a short form for Srinagar. Students in India celebrate the festival by putting up stalls at local landmarks. During the occasion, various cultural and religious festivals are celebrated. The Durga Pu f678ea9f9e
